A POLITICAL TURNOUT.

A DEMOCRAT FOR REVENUE
WHO POSES AS SIMON PURE.

Tompie, the Traitor, Would Perpetrate
Himself on the Administration for Patronage—A Specimen of His Democracy.

FROM THE NEWS, JUNE 17, 1892.

The Way to Win—Democrats are pretending to find courage and hope in the theory that the Republican party is going to prove itself weak in the campaign and at the polls by reason of disappointments and diversions. To hear them talk a foolish person might suppose that the Democracy was in a condition of blissful harmony, to which the heavenly choirs can make only a feeble and quivering approach; that its leaders were already disenthralled of every ambition save only to promote the triumph of pure goodness, and that the universe was about to behold the sweet and solemn advent of the millennium under Democratic auspices.

"We cannot admit, even for the sake of argument, that this is really the present state of our friends, the enemy, or bears any resemblance to any conceivable future state of theirs. In point of fact they are much distressed and harassed by their own prospects, realizing that to get a leader they will probably be forced to choose between two implacable foes, one of whom is attended by a squad of ponderous blunder-bushes and the other by a company of agile razor-bearers.

OUR CANDIDATE.

(Daily News October 6, 1892.)

In this issue of the News will be found the announcement of Judge G. N. Perkins as a candidate for the legislature from the Twenty-fifth district. The judge is a colored gentleman, and the News desires to go on record so far as he is concerned. We are for him first, last and all the time. Vote for him, black and white Republicans. Vote early and as often as you can. He will stand like a Hercules for the principles that Lincoln and Seward advocated. Judge Perkins is a typical Afro-American. Nominating Perkins and success will crown the efforts of those who are struggling for advancement. Trifle with these black-skinned brothers no longer. Forbearance ceases to be a virtue when you look the school house door. Education is just what the colored race are seeking for. This they must have—this is just what such men as Judge Perkins intend they shall have. Elect Judge Perkins as a legislator and then this newspaper will herald to the world that you Republicans are sincere.

The following editorial from Tompie's effort of March 30, 1892, well illustrates his record as a democrat and shows conclusively his claims for patronage at the hands of the party.

VOTE STRAIGHT.

Some of the billy-whites and democrats are urging voters to not elect negroes to office. One particular reason more weighty than any other that is brought to bear is, that we already have a large negro population, and to select negroes would encourage them to come here in large numbers.

This may be so, and we do not deny it, but they are citizens and fellow republicans, and every loyal republican will vote the straight ticket, negroes and all.

Further, the negroes are a desirable portion of our population, and we ought to encourage them to come and settle among us. If there are any white trash who do not like these sentiments, let such move out.

The negroes are republicans almost to a man. Many of them are among our most enterprising and useful citizens, and the more of them we have the better for the party and city.

If democrats and "billy-white" republicans don't like it, let such move out.

And in the same issue appeared this:

COME UP TO THE BACK.

If there is a Republican in this city who cannot, conscientiously, walk to the polls on election day and vote the straight, unadulterated, Republican ticket for city officers, then we want his name, from whence he came, his antecedents; in fact, his pedigree. If there is a Republican in this town who will vote for a Democrat, we want to know him; we have a name for him, and it is an even bet that the scoundrel never "shot to kill." He must have been a commissariat, a driver of a mule team, or a sixty days' soldier for what there was in it.

Come, men; come, soldiers; come, negroes; let us elect men who stood shoulder to shoulder during the war against these devils who endeavored to break up the grandest galaxy of states, or principalities, that ever combined together for advancement.

These negro-haters, like wolves, conceal themselves until election day is near. Then they use the taxes collected from the common people to further their interests. Watch them. They are frauds. They are the descendants of a people who lashed the backs of black men until the red blood flowed down from the cruel cuts satisfied their fiendish delight.

Vote to put Democrats in office. Never.

AN IDEAL ANAGORIST.

General Campaign Assistant William H. Barlow, a Spanish Unionist.

BARLOW, Sept. 30.—The court-martial of Pallas, who attempted to assassinate General Canjiao, was commenced yesterday. The court is composed of a colonel and five captains. The prisoner was brought into court with his hands tied behind him, but the president ordered that his hands be released. The prisoner took a seat near the president's table and commenced playing with the lids of the ink stands on the table. The president ordered him to face the court and to answer to the accusation which the prosecutor read.

When he had finished Pallas said the charge against him was true and declared that he would commit the deed a hundred times if it were possible. He had no accomplices, and he was only sorry that he had failed to kill General Canjiao, whom he hated since he defeated the Republicans in 1874. The prisoner said he had no further statement to make. As the hearing proceeded Pallas became so insolent in his bearing that the president ordered that he be removed from the room. Later he was brought back to hear the address of the prosecutor who demanded in the name of an out raged society, that the prisoner be shot. Pallas thereupon jumped up and shouted that he agreed with the prosecutor.

The president declared that nothing remained but to consider what sentences would be imposed. Pallas was then removed from the court, twisting his mustache as he walked out and wearing an air of ostentatious defiance. It is expected that he will be sentenced to-day.

STORY OF A BLACK CRIME.

Reported Double Shooting and Lynching Near Heanessy, Ok.

ALVA, Ok., Sept. 30.—By apparently well-founded rumor, the news reaches here that on last Sunday two surveyors, father and son, named Allen, attempted to locate a Bohemian on a young cowboy's claim about thirty miles southeast of this place. The cowboy, in attempting to put him off, became engaged in a fight with the father, whereat the son secured a hatchet and, in defending his father, cut the cowboy in three places, once on the shoulder and arm and once in the abdomen, from which his entrails protruded.

The cowboy, being worsted in the fight, got his revolver and killed both father and son. The cowboy was taken to Heanessy, and the dead body of the Bohemian was swinging from a tree. Parties who did the hanging are unknown.

Horrible Double Murder.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 30.—Postoffice Inspector James A. Small has received a telegram notifying him of the brutal murder of Postmaster Porter and his assistant, Robert Roberts, at Montrose, Yuma county, yesterday. At noon when the mail was called for, Roberts was found sitting in a chair in a front office, dead. When the sheriff was summoned he discovered the body of Porter some distance away, with one leg broken and the skull crushed in.

Reward of $1000 for the murderer.

MAISON, Mo., Sept. 30.—Stanley Johns and Sam G. Reynolds the two young men who took up a rail from the Washburn railroad near Atlanta, Macon county, August 3 last, and then dragged the passenger train to prevent a wreck, for the purpose, they claim, to secure a reward from the railroad, were yesterday convicted and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. They acknowledged the act, but denied that it was willful or malicious.

Congress of Missions.

CHICAGO, Sept. 30.—About 400 people were present yesterday at the congress of missions. Charles Faithful of Marselles, France, Rev. Frank Bristol of Chicago, Rev. William C. Roberts of New York, Fritz Friedner of Spain and others made addresses. The Sunday rest congress and the ethical congress continued their sessions.

Soldiers' Reunion.

ABILENE CITY, Kan., Sept. 30.—Yesterday the seventh annual reunion of the Southwestern Soldiers' association closed with the election of officers. Colonel O. Ingersoll was elected president for the ensuing year; Captain J. W. Stanford vice president; R. F. Childs secretary, and Colonel E. Neff, treasurer.

Brought in Iowa Broken.

MAHARAJA, Iowa, Sept. 30.—The unprecedented drought in this section was broken yesterday by a steady downpour of rain. The pastures are probably dried up past reviving, but the benefit to winter wheat, well-streams and fall plowing will be incalculable.

Father and Son Drowned.

NOWATA, Ind. Ter., Sept. 30.—James Lutz, a wealthy farmer of this place, and his 3-year-old son, James, were drowned in the Verdigis river while crossing in a boat. Two other men in the boat escaped by swimming. The river is unusually high.

Secretary Gresham Visiting His Mother.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 30.—Secretary of State Gresham left this city yesterday on his return to Washington. He will pay a visit to his mother in Harrison county, Indiana, before returning to Washington.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittle? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Root Hair Grower. It restores perspiring pores, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your doctor cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward promptly, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c per jar; 6 for $2.50.
